"I understand that I can be disqualified or permanently excluded from taking or continuing to take an examination, or from receiving scores from an examination, if the International Board of Chiropractic Examiners (IBCE) or the examination administrator concludes that: 1) I have provided any false or misleading information on my application. 2) I take an examination for another person or another person takes an examination in my place. 3) I am found to be cheating, based either upon observation or statistical analyses of answer sheets. 4) I engage in any act or conduct that jeopardizes or could jeopardize the security or integrity of IBCE examinations; such action or conduct may include, but is not limited to, copying or reproducing any portion of the examination, or memorizing questions and/or answers and furnishing those memorized questions and/or answers to any other person at any time. 5) I fail to adhere to instructions given at the examination administration. 6) I engage in any behavior that is deemed to be disruptive, offensive, or inappropriate in any way to the testing environment.

I acknowledge that any failure to adhere to instructions given at the examination site, or any conduct or communication during an examination by which any attempt to refer to books, notes, or other devices during the examination, or to obtain information from another person or give information to another examinee thereby placing myself or any other examinee at an advantage he or she otherwise would not have had, shall constitute irregular behavior. All examination materials are the property of the IBCE and must be left in the room at the end of the examination. The IBCE reserves the right to invalidate and not report examination scores or to require all examinees to retake the examination if presented with sufficient evidence, either direct or through statistical analyses, that the integrity of the examination has been compromised, notwithstanding the absence of any evidence of an examinee's personal involvement in irregular behavior."

This application and the examination shall be deemed to have been made and accepted in Colorado where the International Board of Chiropractic Examiners' principal place of business is located. The application and examination shall be interpreted, and all transactions thereunder and all rights and liabilities of the parties thereto, shall be determined and governed as to validity, interpretation, enforcement and effect by the laws of the State of Colorado. The United States District Court for the District of Colorado and the District Courts for the State of Colorado shall have exclusive jurisdiction over all actions and proceedings arising directly or indirectly from this application and examination and applicant hereby consents to the jurisdiction of these courts.

This document also authorizes the release of a score report of the SPEC to the Japan Chiropractic Registers (JCR).

Under no circumstances does the NBCE guarantee SPEC score acceptance by the JCR or any licensing agency.
